Ram Shree Education Research and Social Welfare Foundation

About Lex Gazette Academy

Lex Gazette Academy is a leading academic and educational initiative under the Ram Shree Education Research and Social Welfare Foundation, a not-for-profit organization registered under the M.P. Societies Registration Act, 1973, and listed with NITI Aayog, Government of India. The Foundation is dedicated to promoting inclusive education, interdisciplinary research, and community development, particularly in underserved and rural regions of India.

As the official academic and outreach wing of the Foundation, Lex Gazette Academy plays a pivotal role in organizing impactful national and international seminars, educational conferences, legal workshops, faculty development programs (FDPs), and student-focused activities, including moot court competitions, legal awareness drives, and skill-based training sessions.

Lex Gazette Academy also manages the Lex Gazette International Multidisciplinary Research Journal. This peer-reviewed, open-access journal publishes high-quality research articles, case studies, and reviews across a wide range of disciplines, including law, social sciences, education, management, and more. The journal serves as a trusted platform for early-career researchers, academicians, and professionals seeking to contribute to the global research community.

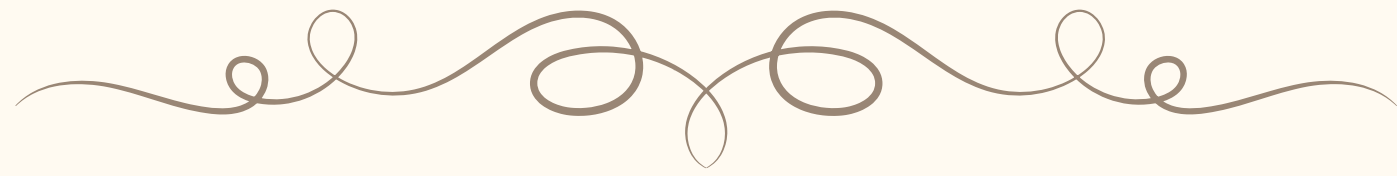

With a strong commitment to academic excellence, affordable learning opportunities, and ethical scholarship, Lex Gazette Academy is continuously working to democratize access to education and knowledge in India. Despite humble beginnings and initial financial constraints, it has grown into a respected name in the field of legal and multidisciplinary education, making meaningful contributions to the academic and social landscape of India.

Whether you're a researcher, student, educator, or policymaker, Lex Gazette Academy offers diverse opportunities for collaboration, learning, and publishing, supporting your journey toward knowledge and impact.

About Journal

Lex Gazette International Multidisciplinary Research Journal

(ISSN: 3049-3536) is a double-blind, peer-reviewed academic journal committed to publishing high-quality, original research across a wide range of disciplines. Our mission is to foster interdisciplinary collaboration and promote innovative ideas that address contemporary global challenges. We provide a platform for scholars, researchers, and practitioners to share their work, facilitate academic dialogue, and contribute to the advancement of knowledge in fields ranging from the humanities and social sciences to the natural and applied sciences.

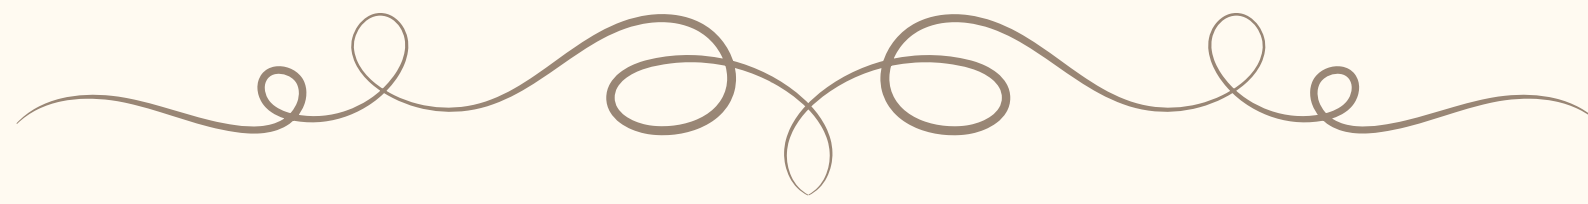

Our editorial board consists of a highly qualified team of experts from prestigious educational institutions worldwide. These distinguished scholars and professionals bring a wealth of knowledge and experience, ensuring that every article published in Lex Gazette meets the highest standards of academic excellence and integrity. Their diverse expertise enables us to provide rigorous and thorough peer review, maintaining the academic rigour that defines our journal. We publish four editions annually, showcasing a blend of original research articles, reviews, case studies, and theoretical papers. By maintaining a quarterly publication schedule, we ensure that Lex Gazette remains a timely and relevant resource for the global academic community.

We welcome contributions from a wide array of fields and encourage collaborative work with educational institutions, research conferences, and social organizations. Through our quarterly editions, we strive to foster a diverse and inclusive academic community that bridges disciplines and promotes global knowledge exchange.
