ABOUT LEX GAZETTE ACADEMY

Lex Gazette Academy stands as an independent academic and research-driven institution, established under the patronage of the Ram Shree Education Research and Social Welfare Foundation—a not-for-profit organization registered under the Madhya Pradesh Societies Registration Act and duly listed with NITI Aayog, Government of India. Functioning as the dedicated educational and intellectual arm of the Foundation, the Academy is committed to advancing quality education, cutting-edge research, and interdisciplinary innovation that responds to the dynamic needs of society.

At its core, Lex Gazette Academy serves as a vibrant hub for students, scholars, educators, practitioners, and professionals, offering a wide spectrum of programs ranging from international and national conferences, seminars, workshops, guest lectures, training sessions, certificate courses, and faculty development programs. With a distinctive focus on law, social sciences, and business studies, the Academy integrates academic rigor with practical exposure, encouraging critical thinking, policy-oriented research, experiential learning, and community engagement.

Guided by the values of service, empowerment, inclusivity, and integrity, Lex Gazette Academy envisions creating an ecosystem where knowledge transcends disciplinary boundaries. By fostering an environment that bridges academia, industry, policy, and practice, the Academy strives to nurture leaders, thinkers, and changemakers who can address contemporary global challenges with informed perspectives and innovative solutions.

ABOUT COMPETITION

The 2nd Judexis Moot Court Competition, organized by Lex Gazette Academy, is a national-level academic initiative designed to promote excellence in legal research, advocacy, and courtroom practice among law students across India.

Following the successful completion of its first edition, the second edition aims to provide participants with an intellectually rigorous platform to engage in advanced legal problem-solving through memorial drafting and oral submissions. The competition seeks to simulate real court proceedings, enabling students to develop analytical reasoning, interpretation of law, and professional advocacy skills.

The Judexis Moot Court Competition encourages participants to explore contemporary legal issues while adhering to high standards of academic integrity, procedural discipline, and professional conduct. Through structured rounds and evaluation by experienced academicians and legal professionals, the competition aspires to nurture future litigators, researchers, and legal scholars.

The event will be conducted on 18th and 19th April 2026, with a total prize pool of ₹1,20,000, reaffirming Lex Gazette Academy's commitment to strengthening practical legal education and mooting culture in India.
